SELECTING WHO'S WHO

Mike Hughey

A faculty committee nominated a number of seniors they felt should be recognized for their contributions to Reynolds. The Senior Class members then voted for fifteen girls and fifteen boys they thought should receive the honor. Not pictured is Harry Paige.

Ruth Reed, MISS D.A.R.

Ruth Reed, Randy Wilcoxson, Donna Brown, OUTSTANDING TEEN-AGERS OF AMERICA

SPECIAL HONORS

Some of the other seniors that received honors were Denise Russell, who placed first in local and state competition in an essay contest with handicapped workers as the theme. Her award included two hundred dollars and an expense paid trip to Washington, D. C. Debbie Painter won the "Freedom's Challenge" essay contest, and won the Betty Crocker award from Reynolds. Jeff Burleson was awarded a full Duke scholarship. Many other seniors received scholarships and other honors and are to be congratulated.

The ten honor students were named at the middle of the year due to publication deadline, and slight changes in rank were possible by the end of the school year.

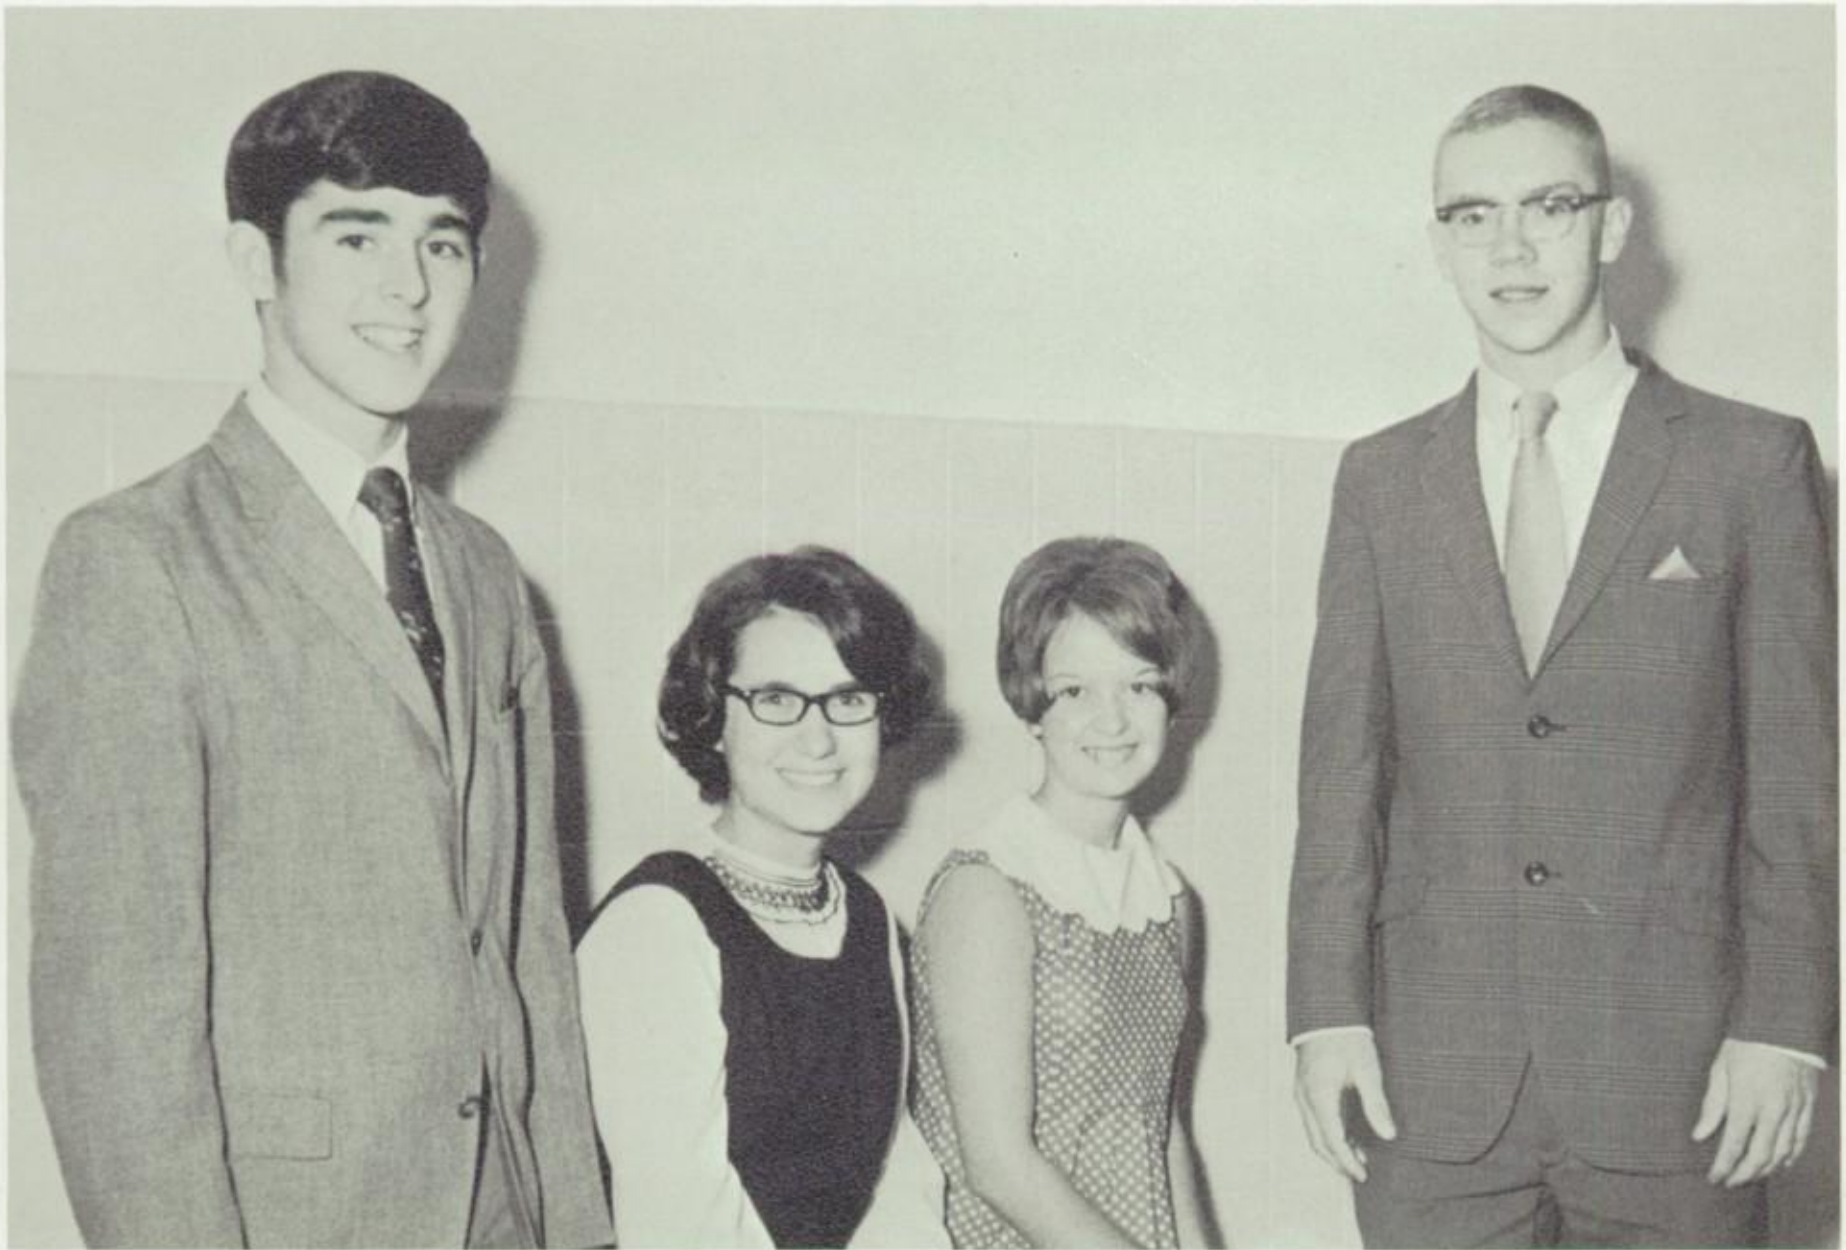

Alan Gosnell, MR. SENIOR OF THE YEAR, honored by Greensboro College

REIGNING AS QUEEN

Debbie Noland was crowned Homecoming Queen for the year of '69-'70.

FOR ONE MAGIC NIGHT

Ten excited senior girls and their escorts climaxed Homecoming activities on the night of October 3, 1969. Homecoming week consisted of an enthusiastic pep rally, a spirited bonfire, our winning game, and the crowning of Debbie Noland as Queen with Lynn Nesbitt as her maid of honor. The next night was the Homecoming Dance with music by the Donz.

Lynn Nesbitt was selected as Maid of Honor by the seniors.

A sad comedy, "The Ledge", was presented by Mr. Koegel's fourth period Drama Class for the student body on Friday, March 6. The following day, the play was taken to the district Drama Festival at Western Carolina University where it won the highest award possible and as a result became eligible for the State Drama Festival at Chapel Hill on March 19, 20, and 21. A lot of time and effort was put into the play, and the class enjoyed every minute of it, especially the three day stay at Chapel Hill.

BRINGING IN THE NEW YEAR

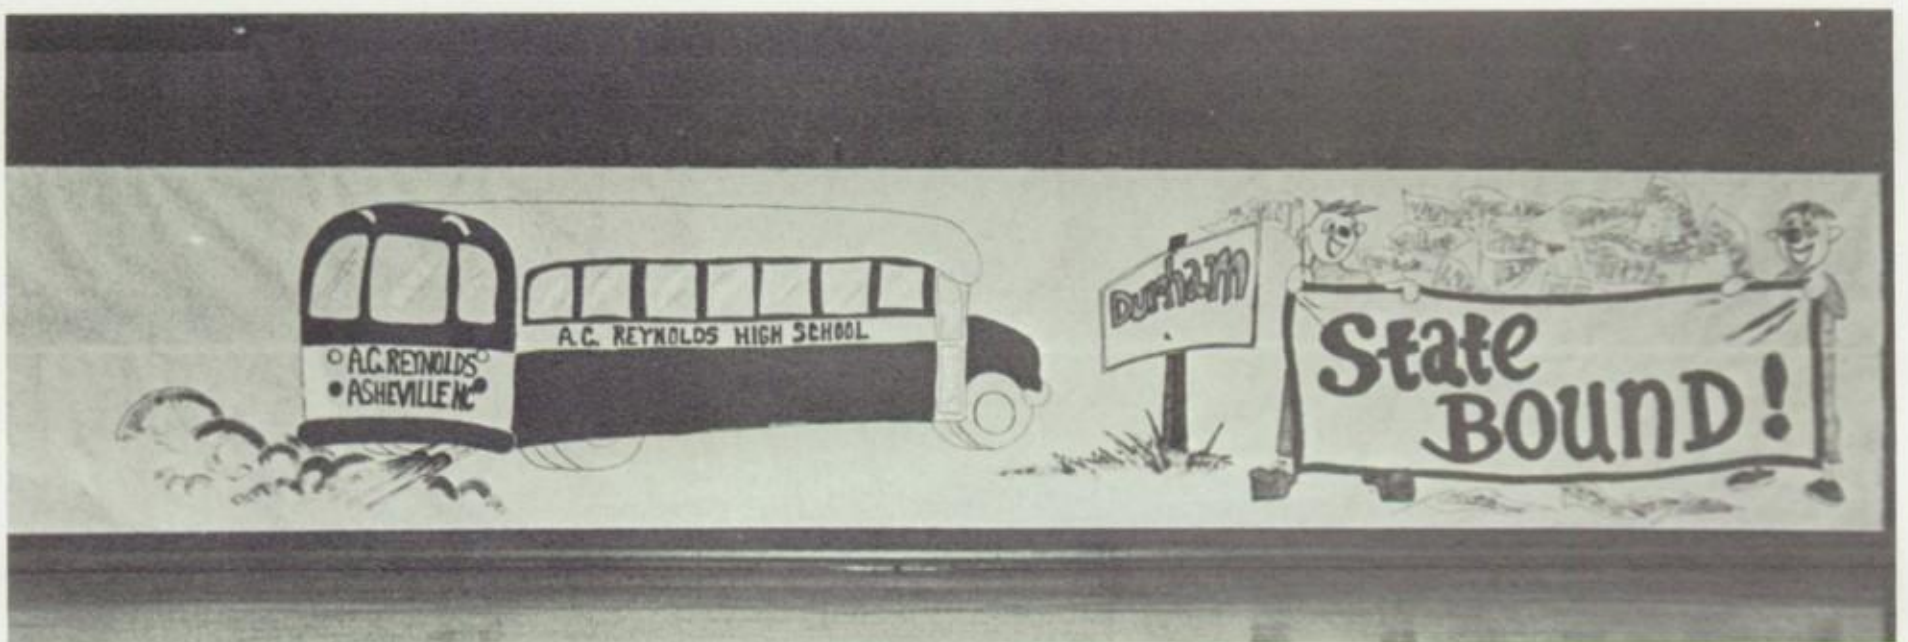

SENIOR DANCE

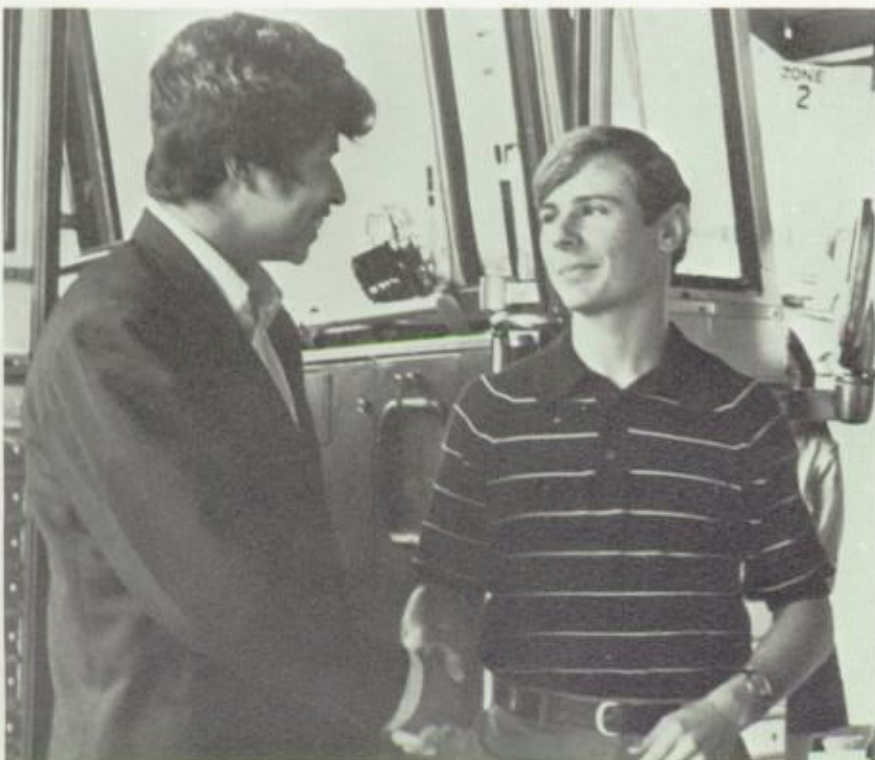

As a change of pace this year, the Senior Dance was held on New Year's Eve at the Erwin Community Center, with music by the British Walkers. The year ended with everyone singing Auld Lang Syne, and 1970 was welcomed with joyous shouts, horns, and laughter.

This year, for the first time ever, Reynolds has a foreign exchange student. Juan Ordonez, who comes to us through International Fellowship, will finish the last three months of the school year here at Reynolds. Steve Landreth and Lewis Deal and their families will host Juan during his stay. Talented in many sports, Juan is a member of the track team. He likes Asheville because the mountains remind him of his home town of Chinandega, Nicaragua. After graduating from his high school next year, Juan plans to join the Air Force, or attend the University of Mexico.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The backbone of the student body, serving with little recognition, is the Student Council. A representative and an alternate representative are chosen from each homeroom. These students meet on Monday of every week to plan and discuss the projects for the year. The Council is also a channel for student opinion. Anyone wishing to express himself can contact his homeroom representative, or if he wishes, attend a Council meeting himself. This year, the Student Council sponsored and organized Homecoming Week which included a homeroom spirit decorating contest, a bonfire with entertainment by the Drama Class, presentation of the Homecoming queen and her court at the game on Friday night, and the dance on Saturday night with music by The Donz. In December, 32 needy families were given "White Christmas" boxes.

THE BETTERMENT OF THE SCHOOL,

The goods in the boxes were contributed by the student body, and distributed by the Council members. In January, over 1130 dollars were earned by selling links for the "spirit chains". Under the fine leadership of Alan, the Student Council has proven to be a hardworking and much needed part of the school.

BETA CLUB

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are the high ideals for which the Beta Club strives. To become a member, a student must exhibit these qualities as well as maintain a grade average of ninety or above. This year the club's major project was to purchase drapes for the cafeteria. In order to raise money to send several students to the state convention in Raleigh, a movie was sponsored for the student body. In the fall an impressive tapping ceremony was conducted. This enabled several seniors to become members. Beta members work to project the strong character for which their club stands.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

The Newspaper Staff got off to a late start, but a successful one. By December most everything was organized and the first issue went on sale. Picking a name was a hard decision but Lunation Limited was finally chosen, meaning, the newspaper was limited to once every 29.5 days. Due to the snow days missed in January, the staff was unable to get a newspaper out for that month, but two issues were published in March. The sixth, and final issue was dedicated to the Seniors. It was the aim of the Newspaper Staff to unite the student body by keeping them well informed, not only by presenting the news, but also by giving students a chance to exhibit writing talent, and express their opinions.

ANNUAL STAFF

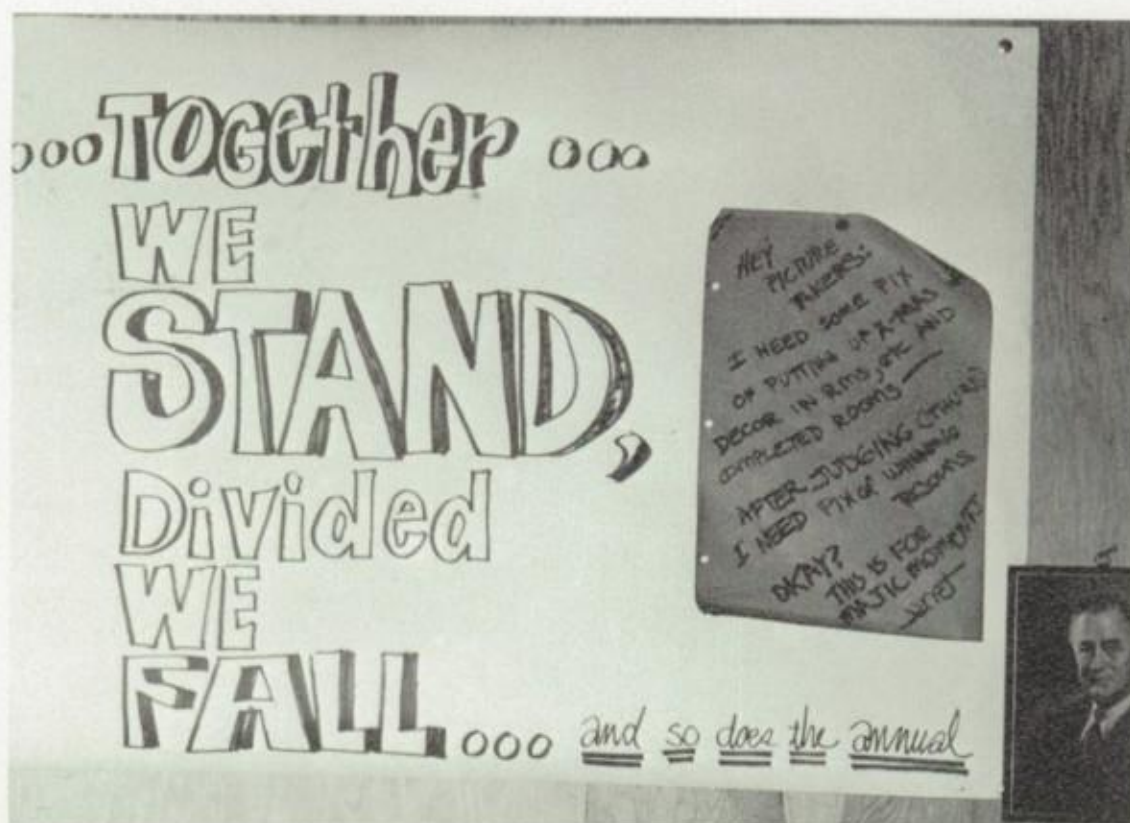

Debbie Clayton, Assistant Editor

In spite of the flu epidemic, three weeks of bad weather, and the panic at the nearing deadlines, the Annual Staff managed to keep their sanity and still present a convincing record of the school year. Room 15 became a second home for the editors and department heads who spent endless hours working to meet the deadlines. Most of the staff agreed that the shattered nerves, lack of sleep, and lost tempers were entirely worth the satisfaction gained from creating and publishing this annual.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is a part of the curriculum and a full credit course. Students are taught how to read music and a variety of songs are learned. This year some of the songs included "Today", "The Sweetheart Tree", "Aquarius", and "Blowin' in the Wind". Out of the three classes, several students were chosen to attend a chorale clinic at Mars Hill College. The Glee Club performed at the February PTSA meeting and was a big success.

One of the hardest working and most talented groups at Reynolds is the band. Under the direction of Mr. Edwards, the band members spent endless hours practicing in order to give the best performances possible. The band has been working all year to raise the money to buy new uniforms. A newly formed organization called "The A. C. Reynolds Band-Aid" raised over one thousand dollars toward the new uniforms and hopes to eventually earn enough money to buy new instruments and a bus for the band. The band played at every home football game and at many of the away games. At home basketball games, the Pep Band performed between games and at half-times. The band members deserve a special thanks for the entertainment they added to school activities and we wish them luck in raising the money they need.

"On the move" was the phrase to describe the Reynolds Clog Team in 1969. Traveling to Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, and Tennessee, the team captured nine major clog championships and had won five more trophies in early 1970. However, the biggest thrill came when the team was invited to dance in England before Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip. Encouraged by their success, the Clog Team bought it's own bus in 1969. The Smooth Dance Team placed third this year at the North Carolina State Fair among stiff competition. The team later won the Western North Carolina Smooth Crown at the Hendersonville Apple Festival.

Mr. Harris, Sponsor

DECA is an organization for young people interested in Marketing and the distribution of goods and services. There are many contests in which students can participate. In district competition this year at East Henderson High School Pam Babson placed third in the job interview contest and Susie Smith placed second in the DECA Sweetheart contest.

One of our intellectual organizations is the Chess Club. In order to belong a member must own, or have access to a chess board, and be willing to learn. During meetings matches are held and members try to improve their games.

TRI-SCIENCE CLUB

A charter member of the Science Clubs of America, the Tri-Science Club sponsored a science fair at Reynolds as its 1969-70 project. Members of the club also entered projects in the district science fair at Western Carolina. Field trips were taken to Oak Ridge and other places that interested club members.

The Bible Club is a newly formed organization started by interested students. At meetings, principles of the Bible are discussed, and guest speakers are invited to participate in discussions.

FRENCH CLUB II

French Club members try to promote a better understanding of the French people and their culture. During club meetings, programs are presented about the art, education, and tradition of France. The sponsor, Miss Jo Ann Crook, will be traveling to Europe this summer with a group of local high school students.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of boys interested in vocational agriculture. This year the FFA chapter has expanded. The Junior and Senior Ag classes now have two hour blocks. The chapter also has a livestock chain. The Ag boys and FFA members worked hard this year to rebuild the shop and are helping to build a strong chapter for Reynolds.

FOR THE FUTURE,

A busy group this year was the Future Homemakers of America. The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held in the fall, with the theme, "The Generation Gap". At Christmas, the club went caroling at the Fletcher Nursing Home. Daddy-Date Night, equivalent to the Mother-Daughter Banquet, was held in the spring.

The Forensic League offers the students the chance to improve themselves in the field of public speaking. Areas include extemporaneous speaking, dramatic interpretation, and debate. Tournaments were held at T. C. Roberson and Enka and there, members had the chance to gain points in competition. Debbie Painter, an outstanding member, brought honors to the club in the Voice of Democracy contest.

One of the more active groups at Reynolds is the Health Careers Club. Many of the members do volunteer work at the local hospitals. Two children from Elida Home were surprised with gifts bought by the club. Trips were made to Broughton and to the Health Careers Congress in Raleigh. Mary Ann Sisty was elected to the state office of Treasurer for the 1969-70 term, and during the month of December the club was voted Club of the Month in state competition.

HEALTH CAREERS CLUB

COMBINING FUN

Girls who wanted to learn cheers and hoped to eventually become cheerleaders formed this club. The J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders help the girls and teach them new cheers. A committee of club members made many of the attractive bulletin boards seen in the halls during the year. The club helped the cheerleaders at games and assemblies by adding extra spirit.
